

The American Institute of Architects Continuing Education System

AIA/CES Registered Provider Program Summary

Provider: The Garland Company, Inc.	Length: 1 hour
Program #: 0312 RWS	Credits: 1 AIA/CES Learning Unit
Program: Design Principles for Rainscreen Wall System	HSW Credit: Yes

Course Description: This presentation provides participants with an understanding of the various components that lead to water penetration in walls and how to prevent it with rainscreen wall system solutions. The importance of air barriers, vapor control and thermal control in the walls will be discussed. Examples of proper rainscreen details and construction will be provided.

How Taught: Instructor-led, face-to-face

Who Should Attend: Architects, specifiers, design professionals and, building owners in the commercial/industrial building market.

Cost: There is no cost to bring this program into your firm or chapter.

For more information: Contact you local Garland Representative.

METAL

